4.3 How do you define "success" for participants in terms of their project activities? *
Describe the measurable milestone of success your project uses to determine when a participant has successfully completed services (e.g. mental health services, substance use services, diversion program, mentoring, etc.). Note that you will use this definition for identifying those participants who "successfully complete" your project. This definition could be a dosage of services received, passage of a specified period of time, improvement in an outcome measure, or other definition specific to your project.
Section 5: Outreach, Engagement, and Assessment
Report the total number of outreach, assessment and engagement activities that your project has completed during the current reporting period.
Outreach activities: promote the project to the community and identify referrals. They can include information/resources provided to potential partners, materials shared with members of the public, meetings and/or forums held for the community to discuss the project's goals and efforts.
Engagement activities: establish a rapport or relationship with potential participants. They can include providing information about the project, benefits o participating, motivational interviewing, and providing basic necessities such as bottled water or snacks.
Assessment activities: include a formal or informal evaluation or identification of the participant's needs and the services they will receive as a participant.
5.1 Number of Outreach Activities *
Report the total number of outreach activities that your project has completed during the reporting period.
5.2 Hours of Outreach Activities *
Report the total number of hours spent on project outreach activities during the reporting period. This total should only include the activity total, not total number of staff hours . If two staff attended a four-hour community event as part of your outreach efforts, report 4 hours, not 8 staff hours.
5.3 Engagement Activities *
Report the total number of potential participants staff engaged during the reporting period. This should be and unduplicated count, in that if a potential participant was engaged multiple times during the reporting period, they should only be counted one time.
5.54 Assessment Activities *
Report the total number of potential participants who received an assessment for services during the reporting period.
5.5 Additional Narrative
Please provide any additional narrative necessary to detail your project during current reporting period. If providing additional details in reference to a section within this report, please cite relevant section numbers. Any additional data that is project specific, which may help inform project progress, may be included here. Describe below:
