Summary: This bill would require the BSCC to establish pilot programs in Alameda, Sacramento and San Joaquin counties to address the need for services relating to the commercial sexual exploitation of youth. If the county elects to participate, the chief probation officer of each county would be required to create a program, licensed by the Department of Social Services. The pilot projects established by this measure would be contingent upon an appropriation in the annual Budget Act.

BSCC Duties: BSCC would be a pass-through agency to appropriate funds to the pilot counties

Summary: Notwithstanding specified provisions, current law specifically requires the court to provide specified written notice, within 7 days, to the superintendent of the school district of attendance of a juvenile who has been found by the court to have committed certain offenses. This bill would require the parole officer or probation officer to provide notice to a superintendent under those provisions, if the minor is returned to a school district other than the one from which the minor came or to a public school within the school district from which the minor was enrolled prior to removal, within 7 days of the minor's return, and would require this written notice to include the offense found to have been committed by the minor and the disposition of the minor's case.

Summary: Current law provides for the removal of children who are unable to remain in the custody and care of their parent or parents. Current law authorizes the placement of a dependent child who is 6 to 12 years of age in a community care facility licensed as a group home for children, a short-term residential therapeutic program, or in a temporary shelter care facility only if the court finds that placement is necessary to secure a complete and adequate evaluation and prohibits that placement from exceeding 60 days, except as specified. This bill would authorize that placement for any child who is the subject of a dependency petition and who is 6 to 12 years of age under those circumstances.

Summary: Current law authorizes, during the pendency of any juvenile proceeding, the minor's counsel or the court to express a doubt as to the minor's competency. Current law requires proceedings to be suspended if the court finds substantial evidence raises a doubt as to the minor's competency. Current law requires the court to appoint an expert, as specified, to evaluate whether the minor suffers from a mental disorder, developmental disability, developmental immaturity, or other condition and, if so, whether the condition or conditions impair the minor's competency. This bill would revise and recast these provisions to, among other things, expand upon the duties imposed upon an expert during his or her evaluation of a minor whose competency is in doubt, as specified.

Summary: Current law, as further amended by Proposition 115 and Proposition 21, requires persons convicted of certain crimes to be sentenced to death or imprisonment without the possibility of parole. Those initiative measures may be amended by a 2/3 vote of the Legislature. This bill would amend the above-referenced initiatives by defining the sentence of life without parole for a person who was under 25 years of age at the time of the commission of the offense as life without the possibility of parole for 25 years.
