Membership Information

Hello and thank you for your interest in the State Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention (SACJJD)!

California's SACJJD is made up of Governor-appointed subject matter experts who are committed to enhancing the quality of life for all youth in California. There are currently 19 SACJJD members. These members represent many different geographical areas of California and bring expertise from a wide variety of disciplines and life experiences.

The SACJJD's mission is to serve the Governor, the Legislature and the people of California by promoting effective juvenile justice policies and programming in compliance with goals set forth in the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP). To accomplish this, committee members come together for five to six half-day meetings each year. These meetings are often held in Sacramento though sometimes occur elsewhere in the State. During these meetings, committee members discuss options and develop recommendations related to the expenditure of federal funds received under Title II of the JJDP. In this way, the SACJJD plays an important role in shaping policy and setting direction for federally-funded juvenile justice programming throughout California.

If this sounds like something of interest to you, we encourage you to take a look at the SACJJD's home page on the Board of State & Community Corrections' (BSCC) website at http://www.bscc.ca.gov/s_sacjdp.php. If you would like to take the next step and apply for SACJJD membership, please visit Governor Jerry Brown's website at https://www.gov.ca.gov/m_appointments.php and complete an online application. If you would like to talk to someone about the SACJJD or possible membership, please feel free to contact Kimberly Bushard, Field Representative for the BSCC, at (916) 324-0999 or kimberly.bushard@bscc.ca.gov.
